

GLOBE North America Regional Meetings

1st: Anaheim, California: 5 April 2006

2nd: St. Louis, Missouri: 28 March 2007

3rd: Boston, Massachusetts: 26 March 2008

4th: New Orleans, Louisiana: 18 March 2009

5th: Philadelphia, Pennsylvania: 17 March 2010

6th: San Francisco, California: 9 March 2011

- Networking by over 40 representatives from the North America Region—Canada and 17 states.
- 15 presentations by U.S. Partners and Canada (3 Skype presentations).
- 67 viewers joined via streaming video!

7th: Indianapolis, Indiana: 28 March 2012

GLOBE @ NSTA Anaheim, California, 2006

Ms. Marsha Willis discussing the plan to integrate regional collaboratives in Texas into a state-wide partnership.

Drs. Allan Ludman, Rebecca Dodge and Anthony Murphy addressed issues related to GLOBE implementation into Higher Education.

Drs. Kevin Czajkowski and Martha Conklin focus on science Connectivity.

Teachers working to understand contrails using the book, Do You Know Clouds have Names?

Mr. Todd Ensign provided suggestions for establishing informal education partnerships.

Mr. Greg Cox describes AMSTI, a model for establishing a state-wide GLOBE Learning Community.

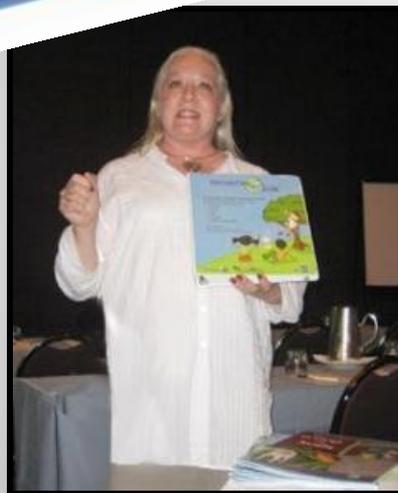

- Networking by over 25 representatives from the U.S. – 16 states.
- 8 presentations by U.S. Partners.

GLOBE @ NSTA

St. Louis, Missouri, 2007

Lynne Hehr, GLOBE Partner from Arkansas and co-author of the Elementary GLOBE Scoop on Soils book, spoke about connecting GLOBE to primary classrooms.

Jennifer Bourgeault, GLOBE Land Cover Research Associate and Partner from New Hampshire, presented connections between GLOBE and Wildlife / National Forest Connections.

Dr. Jimmy Adegoke, GLOBE Partner in Kansas City, Missouri, addressed ongoing efforts at the University of Missouri - Kansas City (UMKC) to enhance the learning experience of college students by incorporating GLOBE protocols into the laboratory component of an introductory level environmental science course.

- Networking by over 27 representatives from the North American Region – Canada and 16 states.
- 4 presentations by U.S. Partners and Canada.

GLOBE @ NSTA

Boston, Massachusetts, 2008

GLOBE Partner Dr. Paul Adams was awarded the NSTA Distinguished Teaching Award which recognizes extraordinary contributions made to the field of science teaching.

- Networking by over 32 representatives from the North American Region – Canada and 12 states.
- 11 presentations by U.S. Partners and Canada (1 Skype presentation).

GLOBE @ NSTA

New Orleans, Louisiana, 2009

Paul Ruscher (left) at CloudSat presentation

Through Skype conferencing, many U.S. Partners who were unable to come to New Orleans were able to attend the Regional Meeting. GLOBE teachers and Partners, in attendance and online, represented:

Canada, Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Florida, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, New York, Texas, West Virginia.

Bill Batycky presenting at the International Meeting

- Networking by over 28 representatives from the North American Region – Canada and 13 states.
- 22 presentations by U.S. Partners and Canada (2 Skype presentation).

GLOBE @ NSTA

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 2010

John McLaughlin, Education Specialist, Office of Education, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration

Sherry Herron, Assistant Professor of Biological Sciences in Hattiesburg, MS presents at North America Regional Meeting

GLOBE Teachers and Partners, in attendance and online, represented: Canada, Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Illinois, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Texas, West Virginia, Washington D. C.

Over 100 viewers
joined via streaming video!

- Networking by over 37 representatives from the North American Region – Canada and 19 states.
- 2 presentations by U.S. Partners and Canada (7 Skype presentation).

GLOBE @ NSTA

San Francisco, California, 2011

128 U.S. and Intl.
viewing sessions
on streaming video!

GLOBE Partners, Alumni, Staff, NASA, NOAA and NSF representatives, and Guest Speakers in attendance and those presenting online, represented:

Canada, Alabama, Arkansas, Arizona, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, North Carolina, Texas, Virginia, Washington D. C.

- Networking by over 40 representatives from the North American Region – Canada and 17 states.
- 15 presentations by U.S. Partners and Canada (3 Skype presentation).